

LABOR DAY

Attended By Many Accidents at Zanesville, O.

An Electric Train Gets Beyond Control and Strikes Another Train.

Two Fatally Injured and Several Others
Seriously—An Electric Train
Jumps the Track and Two Women
Thrown Under the Wheels.

ZANESVILLE, O., Sept. 7.—Labor day was attended by many accidents and several fatalities here. A train of six electric cars got beyond control and dashed down the "Y" bridge incline and side-wiped an approaching train. Two people were fatally injured and several others seriously. Mrs. J. H. Alexander, wife of a traveling salesman, was thrown between the cars and terribly crushed. She is at the hospital and can not live. Just McGrath, district organizer of the Federation of Labor, was probably fatally injured. The others injured are:

Miss Holmes, of Newark; Mr. Yoder, of Canton; Miss Dabbin, of Evansville.

An hour later a car jumped the track and Mrs. Charles Rodgers, of Zanesville, and Miss Ivy Brigham, of Newark, were thrown under the wheels. Physicians say they can not recover. Mr. and Mrs. Heister, who show people, were also badly injured.

While attempting to alight from a freight train, William O. Herne, who was leaving the city for a hunting trip, was thrown under the wheels and badly injured. With superhuman pluck he walked a distance of two miles and died shortly after leaving the city. There were 15,000 visitors in the city.

A MONSTER

Taken From the Officers and Lynched Near Friends Mission, Va.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 7.—A special from Mr. A. R. C. to the News and Observer says that Sunday afternoon near Friends Mission, Va., Miss Sadie Cook, a young woman, aged about 21, after accomplishing his purpose, laid his hand on her, and she, in her unbecomingly and then placing her hand on a log crushed it with a stone, which was left lying bloody near the log. She then cut the girl's throat, severing the windpipe, and dragged the body some 50 yards up a ravine, then to a branch, where it was later found. Meantime he went to a spring and was found washing the stains from his clothing.

The excitement became so intense that Monday afternoon Wald was taken from the officers and lynched near the scene of the crime.

NEW ORLEANS

To Enforce a Strict Quarantine Against Biloid and Ocean Springs, Miss.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 7.—The state board of health has decided to enforce a rigid quarantine against Biloid and Ocean Springs. Quarantine will also be enforced against the other wintering places on the Gulf coast. President Philpott returns and more light is obtained on the situation. Guards are to be put on the stations, all baggage is to be fumigated and every precaution is to be taken to keep the disease from spreading. Biloid and Ocean Springs have been ordered not to stop at either Biloid or Ocean Springs. The houses of all people who have been in Biloid or Ocean Springs in the past two days are to be thoroughly fumigated.

Pronounced Yellow Fever.

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 7.—Gov. Mc Laurin has received the following telegram from the two members of the state board of health, who went to Ocean Springs, Miss., to investigate the yellow fever scare: "After a thorough investigation in every conceivable light, it is our opinion of representative of Louisiana, Alabama and Mississippi state boards of health and the Marine hospital service that the fever now prevailing in Ocean Springs is yellow fever. (Signed) H. H. Harrison, J. J. Hunter."

A 100,000-Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Shortly after 4 o'clock Monday afternoon fire broke out in the basement and warehouse factory of John N. Rowe Sons Co., 18 N. Water street, and in a short time extended to several adjoining buildings of Water street, and several fronting on Delaware avenue. Before the flames were got under control an estimated damage of over $100,000 had resulted. All of which is being covered by insurance. The origin is unknown.

Shot and Killed by His Son.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 7.—Edward B. Bishop, aged 70, was shot and killed by his son, Edward A. Bishop, at his home, 2029 Lloyd street, Monday afternoon. The parents of the youthful patricide had been away for some weeks past, and Monday afternoon the elder Bishop came to the home and attended to his usual duties. THE AMER

Is Ready to Keep the Rebellious
Tribesmen in Check.

Haddad Mullah Goes to His Home and
His Followers Disperse

Owing to the Haddad Mullahs' Refusal to follow the American troops, who have been sent to the Haddad Mullahs' Power and Present Position.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Times Simla correspondent says that in addition to observing the peace, who have been collected by the Mullah's disciples, and others about to join the Mullah. The American troops also scattered a body of Shinwaris, who had assembled near Peshawar, intending to enter and hold the Khyber pass for the Afghans.

The American, the correspondent says, is plainly ready to keep the tribesmen in check, and measures will be taken by his orders that will cripple the Mullah's power and probably prevent further rising.

A dispatch from Jannard says it is reported that the Haddad Mullah has gone to his home and that his followers have dispersed owing to the refusal of the Haddad Mullahs to join in the uprising. All the Afghans held a palaver at Tirah on Friday last, when a majority of the tribesmen opposed the adoption of hostilities against the British, on the ground that every house was already under the fire of the British, and that the crops were ready to be harvested.

THE BIG GUNS

Sunk the Schooner Agnes L. Grace—She Lies in Ten Fathoms of Water.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 7.—Capt. C. D. Farrar and crew of the schooner Agnes L. Grace, which sank 30 miles off Tybee Sunday, arrived in the city last night. Capt. Farrar states that the 15-ton guns for the coast defenses suddenly broke from their fastenings and, to the loss of the vessel, smashed everything in their way. The waterways were opened by the crash, and the vessel sank in about twenty minutes. She lies in ten fathoms of water, with her top mast out of the water. It is possible that the guns be recovered. The schooner is in the path of the coastwise vessels and is dangerous to navigation.
